

Ricoh Sells Ginza Properties

TOKYO, October 19, 2015 — Ricoh Company, Ltd., today announced the sales of two properties (including the land). They are the parent-owned Ricoh Ginza Building 2 and 3 (6-14-6, Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo), as well as the San-Ai Hoshina Building (6-13-5, Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo) of subsidiary Ricoh Creative Service Company, Ltd.

The sales are part of Ricoh's 18th Mid-Term Management Plan, a three-year initiative through March 2017, which is pursuing transformation initiatives to create a more robust corporate structure.

Ricoh cannot disclose the sale prices, as they are subject to confidentiality agreements.

| About Ricoh |

Ricoh is a global technology company specializing in office imaging equipment, production print solutions, document management systems and IT services. Headquartered in Tokyo, the Ricoh Group operates in about 200 countries and regions. In the financial year ending March 2015, the Ricoh Group had worldwide sales of 2,231 billion yen (approx. 18.5 billion USD).

The majority of the company's revenue comes from products, solutions and services that improve the interaction between people and information. Ricoh also produces award-winning digital cameras and specialized industrial products. It is known for the quality of its technology, the exceptional standard of its customer service and sustainability initiatives.

Under its corporate tagline, imagine. change., Ricoh helps companies transform the way they work and harness the collective imagination of their employees.

For further information, please visit www.ricoh.com/about/